Prior to being elected Reeve of the RM of Corman Park No. 344 in 2012 (a seat she still holds), Judy served on council from 1994 to 2000. She was then appointed to the Corman Park and Saskatoon District Planning Commission where she still serves today. Judy is SARM's Director for Division 5; a position she has held since 2014. Over the course of her career, Judy has served on numerous boards, including SaskTel, Saskatchewan Transportation Corporation (STC), Saskatoon Prairieland Exhibition Park, Saskatoon and District Chamber of Commerce, Ronald McDonald House, Saskatoon Regional Economic Development Authority (SREDA), Saskatoon Community Foundation, President of the North Saskatoon Business Association, and as a Director on the Board of SaskPower. Judy received the Queen's Jubilee Medal for Outstanding Community Service, in 2014 she was awarded the North Saskatoon Business Association's Lifetime Achievement Award and Sask. Business Magazine named her one of Saskatchewan's 10 Most Influential Women. Judy was presented a Canada 150 Medal for contributions to the community, as well as the 2021 SREDA Bruce Richet Award for contributions and commitment to regional economic development. In 2023 Judy was presented with the Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee Medal for her ongoing community service.

Judy's lifelong occupation has been in hotel management, she holds a certificate from Cornell University in Essentials of Hospitality Management and a Certified Hotel Administration (CHA) designation.

Judy and her husband Robert live on 80 acres southwest of Saskatoon. Her proudest accomplishments are her children, Christine and Mark. Christine and her husband Earl, and Mark and his wife Shannon, have blessed their family with six beautiful grandchildren, Emily, Sarah, Abbey, Connor, Logan and Olivia.
