Randy was born in Rabbit Lake and was raised on a farm in the Meeting Lake district. He completed his secondary education at Rabbit Lake High School and upon graduation was employed with the Sask Wheat Pool as a grain buyer from 1970 to 1975. In 1975, Randy purchased some land close to the family farm near Rabbit Lake and started farming full-time with his wife Kathy. Together, they developed a herd of purebred livestock and grain farmed, growing cereals and oilseeds. Randy and Kathy have a son and daughter and five grandsons.

In 2010, Randy was elected councillor in the Rural Municipality of Meeting Lake and then reeve in 2014, a position he currently holds. Randy has served on various boards over the years. He was President of the Spiritwood Ag Society and served on the Sask Simmental Association Board. Randy is presently a director for the North Central Transportation Planning Committee and vice-chairman of the Thickwood Hills Watershed Association.
